

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Coral Gables Campus and Gables One Tower: Parking Enforcement Hours Extended To 7-Days/week 8 a.m. – 11 p.m.

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT, THIRD PARTY VENDORS

Why the change in policy?

To create a consistent and more 'equitable' practice by having all campus parkers share in the financial responsibility of paying for the parking resource that they use; reduce the 'unknown' parker by requiring all parkers to register their vehicle's license plate with the university; and, augment 'security' after-hours with parking enforcement officers patrolling the lots.

I have a Daytime Permit, do I need to purchase a Nights and Weekend Permit?

No. The Daytime Permits are valid 24-hours/7-days a week/365 days.

What are the enforcement hours?

Effective August 20, 2018, 8 a.m. – 11 p.m./7-days a week, excluding University holidays.

Who is required to have the Nights and Weekend Permit?

What is the parking cost using PayByPhone or the On-foot Pay Stations?

PayByPhone: The hourly rate is $1.50, plus .27 cents per transaction. For example, if you estimate 2-hours of parking, the total cost will be $3.27. If you extend your parking session by 1-hour, this is considered a new transaction and the incremental cost will be $1.77 ($1.50 + .27).

On-foot Pay Stations: The hourly rate is $1.50; there is no additional transaction fee.

Do other universities charge for weeknights and weekend parking?

Yes. Many other Universities have this practice.

Do you plan to increase the PayByPhone parking hourly rate? If yes, how soon?

The rate of $1.50 will remain in place for one year. We will reevaluate on a yearly basis and adjust as needed.
